Presenter:

Lauren Raine, MFA, has been a visionary mask artist for thirty years. She studied traditions of Temple masks in Indonesia, and produced a series of collaborative masks with Balinese mask artists. Her mask collection has been used for community theatre, dance and ritual throughout the United States. Her new book Masks of the Goddess: Sacred Masks and Dance, which includes both her art and her extensive research on goddesses in different cultures, was published last year.

Archetypes of the Divine Feminine—Lecture by Lauren Raine

Lauren Raine's book Masks of the Goddess: Sacred Masks & Dance has helped people explore and choreograph archetypes of the Feminine Divine and the Great Goddess in workshops, theatre, ritual and dance. Her project included creating thirty masks that highlight the importance of the goddess studies to women and to our multi-cultural world. She will share info about the masks, goddesses and the Divine Feminine. There will also be discussion and personal applications.

The Goddess Within — A Two-Day Workshop

The workshop is a chance to explore “the Goddess within.” We will draw on the power of our mythic imaginations as we explore archetypes of the Divine Feminine through mask making and storytelling. In this workshop you will:

- Sculpt a mask from your face
- Explore personally significant stories of the Goddess
- Learn approaches to working with sacred masks
- Experience the transformative power of working with aspects of the Divine Feminine
- Take home the means to continue your exploration

Note: There is a $10 fee for supplies, to be given to the presenter. Bring a “Goddess story” of your own—mythic, contemporary, or personal—that matters to you, along with found and natural objects you might want to use in your mask.
