*Marion Woodman
August 15, 1928 — July 9, 2018*

Powerful, insightful, provocative, Marion Woodman: Dancing in the Flames (2009) explores the inspiring life and many 'deaths' of one of the western world's most important wisdom keepers, and sends a clarion call to a planet in the midst of "a shedding of its outworn skin." The late renowned Jungian analyst and author, Marion Woodman is celebrated for her work on feminine psychology and addiction, but her words and her wisdom speak to nearly everyone.

With insight from our guide, the brilliant mystic and author Andrew Harvey, Marion explores the mysteries of her soul's journey and reveals a series of psychological 'deaths' and 'rebirths' that have made her who she is today. From her battle with anorexia, to her revelatory experiences in India, to her ever-evolving marriage, to her dance with cancer, Marion has 'died into life' and thus is a perfect teacher and mid-wife for this critical period in our history.

Through the use of stunning animation from Academy Award winning artist Faith Hubley, filmmaker Adam Greydon Reid seamlessly weaves Marion's inner and outer lives together and transmits a core truth of what it is to be human.

There will be a facilitated discussion following the 85-minute film. Southern Arizona Friends of Jung will hold a 15-minute annual meeting to report on finances and to elect board members for 2018-2019. Refreshments will be served. All are welcome.
