Two of the original. Biosphere 2 team members, Tabr MacCallum and Jane Poynter, will be interviewed by Jungian analyst Susan Schwartz about their experience of isolation and confinement inside Biosphere 2 for two years and twenty minutes.

TABER MACCALLUM, CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER, WORLD VIEW ENTERPRISES, INC., was a member of the Biosphere 2 design team and original crew member. He co-founded Paragon Space Development Corporation and served as its CEO. He has managed experiments on the Soviet BioSatellite, Space Shuttle, Mir, ISS, and holds several technology patents. He is presently involved in commercial manned orbital and suborbital spacecraft, serving as Chief Technology Officer for Inspiration Mars that plans to launch two people on a fly-by mission around Mars in 2021.

JANE POYNTER, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, WORLD VIEW ENTERPRISES, INC., was also a member of the Biosphere 2 design team and an original crew member. She was a co-founder of Paragon Space Development Corporation which develops technologies for extreme environments. Experiments in her patented, self-sustaining habitats have flown on the ISS, Mir, and the Space Shuttle. She is a recognized leader in sustainable development. She is the author of The Human Experiment: Two Years and Twenty Minutes Inside Biosphere 2 and Champions for Change: Athletes Making a World of Difference.

SUSAN E. SCHWARTZ, PH.D., Jungian analyst and clinical psychologist is a member of the New Mexico Association of Jungian Analysts and the International Association of Analytical Psychology. Susan has a private practice in Jungian Psychology in Paradise Valley, Arizona. She co-authored a book with Daniela Roher, Ph.D., entitled Couples at the Crossroads. She authored a chapter in the text Counseling and Psychotherapy and in the text Perpetual Adolescence.
